Hockey Meeting.

According to those who attended the annual meeting of the hockey club Thursday evening last, the prospects for the coming season are brighter than for several years.

With practically all last year's players available and the addition of Woodcock who last season played with the Alberta Pacific (Calgary) team, and one or two youngsters coming along, they should be able to put an even stronger team on the ice than won them the league championship last season.

Efforts will be made to revive the Rosebud League, but failing this, arrangements will again be made to form a league with Calgary teams.

The financial statement presented at the meeting showed a small deficit and in order to raise funds the annual dance will be held Friday, December 4th.

The following officers were elected: Hon. Presidents: Mayor Chambers and Dr. Evans; President: Hugh Lee; Sec.-Treas.: Jas. Halton.

Business Girls Club.

The Business Girls Club met at the home of Miss W. Studer on Tuesday evening. Those present: Ophelia Lisenauer, Ruth Lisenauer, Laura Smith, Lucille Smith, Edna McEldow, Alice Pearson, Miss Grant, Nellie Wilson, Mae Royds and Winnie Studer.

The club is at present a social affair, but later may broaden its activities. The next meeting will be held at the home of Misses Grant and Wilson, and a cordial invitation is given to any business girl in town who would care to join.

A number of bridges were also inspected and the secretary instructed to make application for two new bridges, one to be built over the Lone Pine at Jutland, the other near the Dross place.

Several road diversions in various parts of the municipality were discussed, the matter being left to the committee to take the necessary proceedings.

Successful Concert.

The concert presented by the Knox United Ladies Aid, Saturday evening was a very successful affair and the Opera House was crowded to its doors.

Miss Barbara Brown, Scottish dancer and Miss Mary Buckles, comedienne and dancer, both of the McDonald Academy, Calgary were very clever young entertainers, and their talent was much enjoyed by the audience.

The local artists, Mrs. D. Edwards and Miss M. Sangster rendered delightful songs and both received encores. Miss Dorothy Ranton gave a pianoforte solo and together with Mrs. J. Beaman acted as accompanist.

The second half the program was the presentation of a sketch, "Cool & Box," given by Mrs. B. A. Atkinson, Miss D. Brown and Mr. Jack Winterbottom. The sketch was very cleverly performed and its various embarrassing situations provided lots of amusement.

Rev. A. I. Mitchell made a very efficient chairman, and the ladies are to be congratulated on the splendid performance they presented.

Meeting The Challenge

In these troublesome times, when economic conditions the world over are causing none suffering, any line of reasoning that will tend to stiffen the morale, is surely welcome. Some comfort, perhaps, may be drawn from the fact that we in Canada are doubtless less affected than other countries, and if we can credit the utterances of many well-informed writers and public speakers, we shall be among the first of the nations to emerge from this depression. We are no doubt now paying the price of rather extravagant living, and the present is a very good time to take stock and to reconstruct our ideas in conformity with the fixed laws of economics. And we must consider not only material things, but also the matter of character and the true worth of the individual. The present is surely a testing time. Roy L. Smith, contributing a most helpful article in a recent issue of The Rotarian, says that while the financial conditions have upset our economic structure, the real values of life are unshaken and solid. We cannot do better than to quote his article in full, which is as follows:

We have passed through a panic suffered from a crash on the stock market and are now more than half way through the depression, and I am still rich.

"It may be true that I have much less to live on than I had a year ago, but it is certainly true that I have just as much as ever to live for. The real values of life are unshaken and solid."

The stock crash cost us much that we never had—paper profits which never got nearer our pockets than the financial pages of the daily papers. The market failed but nothing else did. Prices went down, but not one acre lost its fertility and all the electronics, profane and other waves went on working in their accustomed ways.

When the depression came I was compelled to take an invoice and soon discovered that I was still rich. All my capacity for the enjoyment of life was intact.

"The depression has not lowered the value of a single friendship. Neighbors still greet us in the same old, cordial way, business associates believe in us and our sons hold us in high respect. The wife's welcome at the close of the day has not depreciated in the least and our daughters continue to lavish their affection upon us with the same old extravagance."

"My faith in the goodness of the universe is unimpaired. By that faith I am emboldened as I face defeat and despair. The prayers my mother taught me and the faith in God instilled in me by a devout father remain as priceless treasures no depression can touch."

"No nation becomes great by becoming rich. Neither does a man find enduring satisfaction in life by owning something—only by becoming something. The most degrading poverty is that which results from killing the spirit that the body may be served."

"This depression has cost us some of the things we created but it has rebuffed us none of our power to create. We may lose some beautiful things, but we have lost no love of the beautiful."

"It is a challenge, not a catastrophe. A generation that has conquered the air and sent giant planes circling the globe, which has plunged into the depths and disappeared on the ocean floor, which has climbed above the clouds and lived in the stratosphere, is now faced with the challenge to rise above its dependence on mere things and seek an emancipation of the spirit of man."

The last six months have been for many men a thrilling spiritual adventure through which they have discovered their real wealth. Bereft of dividends and profits they are discovering the sustaining powers of strong religious faith, the abiding value of courage, heroism, honor, clarity and trustworthiness.

"A financial crisis can wipe out profits and bring business to a standstill, but character is beyond its reach. It can rob us of all we have, but it cannot affect what we are."

"The investments we made in ambitious youth, hospitals, crippled children, camps, colleges and service institutions go on paying dividends. The deepest satisfactions of life—those which come from sharing and serving—remain secure."

"I am still rich because I am independently rich—none of my wealth depends upon business conditions or market reports."

Tar Sand Development

The tar sand development at Fort McMurray is proceeding satisfactorily, according to Dr. S. C. Ellis, mining engineer of the Dominion Department of Mines, who passed through Edmonton, the other day, from Waterways, on a routine business trip to Ottawa. Dr. Ellis, who has been conducting the tar sand development at Fort McMurray for the past year, will shortly return to Edmonton and Fort McMurray.

Flags For All Occasions

In the matter of flags the Manitoba Free Press of Winnipeg is prepared for all emergencies. When the King and Queen of Spain recently visited the city the Spanish flag was flown in their honor, and there was no trouble in obtaining it since it was on their own flag stock. "Our flag backers," E. H. Markin, president and general manager, says "contains full-sized flags of all the different nations of the world, and these we fly from our courtesy flag staff on the occasion of national holidays of the different nations."

Dysentery Is a Very Dangerous Bowel Complaint

Mrs. E. M. Ward, 627 Ave. H. South, Saskatoon, Sask., writes:—"When my husband was in France he took dysentery, and was in hospital over a year. Ever since he came back he has had the attacks three or four times a year. I cannot emphasize the good Dr. Fowler's Cataplasms of Wild Strawberry has done for him. He generally takes a few doses and gets relief in a few hours. "I cannot speak too highly of your excellent remedy, and you may be sure we are never without a bottle of it in the house."

Roads For Airplanes

Beam Like Searchlight Enables Pilots To Keep Their Bearings

In the near future aeroplanes may use roads or tracks just as motor-cars and railway trains do today. The aeroplane roads will not be visible, but they will be there. They will consist of beams of unseen rays focused from one point to another just like the beam of a gigantic searchlight. An experiment with this new method of flying was made recently. At Manchester and Bristol transmitting stations are erected which send out wireless waves focused into a beam some four miles in width. The aeroplane contains receiving apparatus which indicates to the pilot any straying from his proper course. Starting from Bristol, an aeroplane can be certain of making its way direct to Manchester in the blackest darkness or the thickest fog. All that the pilot has to do is keep in the beam and to fly straight on. It will no longer be possible for pilots to lose their bearings.

NEIGHBORS TALK

"I am employed in a theatre and it is a problem to make ends meet, as I help support my mother and such I like to look well but haven't very much to spend on clothes. To give the appearance of variety to my slender wardrobe I change the colour of a dress or stockings as soon as the things become faded. I always use Diamond Dyes for the work, using them as dyes for dresses and as tints for stockings. I have always gotten such perfect results that our neighbors talk about the great number of new things I have."

"I learned about Diamond Dyes from our wardrobe mistress. She says she has tried all the dyes on the market but none do such splendid work and are so easy to use as Diamond Dyes. I understand they are the world's most popular dyes—and they deserve to be."

Telephone Line Completed

Fin Flon Now Has Regular Long Distance Service

The telephone line to Fin Flon, which will link the northern mining town with the outside world by regular long distance telephone circuit, has been joined by the "copper link." For two months workmen have been engaged in erection of a pole line to the north, and final details of the project have been completed. Local people who spoke to Fin Flon citizens talked over the standard No. 16 copper wire. The cut-in was made without a hitch and connections were perfect.

Home-Grown Fruits

Demand in Winnipeg This Season Has Exceeded the Supply

New Canadian Stamps

Colour Had To Be Changed When Postage Was Increased

The increase in Canadian postage rates necessitated the changing in colour of the Canadian stamps. According to the regulations of the International Postal Union, of which the Dominion is a member, the stamp which will carry an ordinary letter in each country must be red in colour. For that reason the two-cent Canadian stamp was red. When the rate was advanced to three cents, the three-cent stamp did the work formerly done by the two-cent, and therefore the new three-cent stamp was coloured red, the Canadian three-cent stamp corresponding to the United States two-cent and the British penny stamp. This facilitates the work of postal clerks, as they need only to look at the colour of the stamp to ascertain if the letter is sufficiently prepaid. Of course, during the present transition period, when there are some red, two-cent and red three-cent stamps being used, the clerks are obliged to examine the letters to make sure that the three and not the two-cent stamp has been used. This change in colours necessitated a new colour for the two-cent stamp and that stamp has been issued as a brown stamp. It will be recalled that during the war, when postage rates were increased, there was a brown two-cent stamp with the "I.L.C." surcharge, and later a three-cent brown stamp was issued.

Reject Freight Rate Appeal

Board of Railway Commissioners Hand Down Judgment in Coast Case

The Board of Railway Commissioners in a judgment handed down dismissed the application of the corporation of the City of Victoria together with the Panama Pacific Grain Terminals, Limited, for an export rate on grain by the Canadian Pacific Railways equal to that of the City of Vancouver.

The charge that the existing rates were discriminatory, upon which the applicant based its case, was unfounded, C. O. Fullerton, chief commissioner, stated in handing down his decision which was unanimously concurred with by the other two members of the board.

Growth Of Population Of Western Provinces Reveals Developments Of Last Decade

Canada, like the rest of the world, is passing through a troublous period. The collapse of grain prices, and the drought that afflicted a large portion of the prairie provinces during the spring and early summer, have checked her prosperity, and her statisticians are at the moment wrestling with the problems, to them happily unfamiliar, of wide-spread destitution and unemployment in the West. Immigration naturally has had to be checked, and for a time Canada has to think more of preserving and consolidating the prosperity of her existing population than of stimulating its growth. With her vast territory, however, and her immense natural resources, this can only be a passing phase. It does not make it any the less true that the more Canadians the better, nor will it decrease the satisfaction which every Canadian will feel over the fact that the population of the Dominion has almost doubled itself since 1901.

Only the preliminary returns (of the census) have so far been published, and few details are available, but it is plain that the centre of population continues to move westward. Toronto, it is true, shows an increase of over twenty per cent. in the ten years, and is now a city of 627,582 inhabitants; but in Vancouver, which has now a population of nearly a quarter million, the increase has been over fifty per cent., and Winnipeg shows a growth from 179,087 to 217,587. The amazing development of the new Canada west of the lakes is reflected in the expansion of the prairie capital from a tiny settlement of 241 souls in 1871, to the fine city which Winnipeg is today, with its spacious boulevards, palatial public buildings, and its university attended by over 2,000 students.

It is typical of the new Canada that the city is laid out and equipped on a scale proportioned rather to the great and prosperous future which its planners confidently expected than to actual needs of the immediate present. No wonder that the staple product of the prairies can find buyers only at unremunerative prices, the burden of this lavish capital equipment is severely felt. The farmers, upon whose prosperity is built the prosperity of the West, and, indeed, of the whole of Canada, are feeling the pinch of bad times and despondent voices are heard regretting that the reduced income of the country has been so heavily mortgaged. But that—like the depression—is a temporary phenomenon. The Western Provinces will recover from their present setback, and may well be the more prosperous in the end for the lessons learned during their time of adversity. —London Times.

Revenue From Poultry

Value Of Eggs Produced Last Year Estimated At $81,000,000

On 70,000 Alberta farms, with an average of 80 hens, there were produced last year 21,000,000 dozen eggs and exported 122 carloads, stated H. A. Craig, deputy minister of agriculture, during an address at the opening meeting of the season of the Edmonton Poultry and Poultry Stock Association.

Mr. Craig stated that figures received from a reliable source showed that poultry provided a very good part of Canadian farm revenue, for in 1920 eggs alone reached the grand total of $81,000,000.

Early Snow Needed

Falling Before Ground Is Frozen Assists Greatly In Storing Moisture

There probably never was a time in the history of agriculture in the Prairies when early snow was so much needed as at the present time. The extent to which snow contributes moisture to the fields depends directly on the time at which it falls, according to W. D. Albright, Superintendent of the Dominion Experimental Sub-station at Beaverbridge, Alberta. When a thick coat of snow falls on unfrozen ground a great deal of it melts and becomes established as soil moisture. The extent to which soil can be kept unfrozen and permeable depends entirely upon natural developments. If the snow falls early to a good depth it will ensure a considerable supply of moisture in the soil, while if rains or sleet permeate the surface soil and freeze they are likely to form a solid coating which will leave the ground almost as dry in the spring next year as it now is.

Fall Rye Distribution

Saskatchewan Department Of Agriculture Being Flooded With Orders

Orders for nearly 100,000 bushels of fall rye have been received to date by the Saskatchewan Department of Agriculture. The seed has been purchased by the Government and shipped to Moose Jaw where a considerable quantity already has passed through the cleaning plant and has been distributed to farmers. The plant is operating twenty-four hours a day in order that supplies may be delivered in good time for seeding. Provisions of The Temporary Seed Grain Act apply.

Russian Wheat Lower Grade Than Canada

Crop From Western Prairies Is Of Better Quality

A special despatch to the Toronto Globe from Ottawa says:

A report just completed by the agricultural statistics branch of the Bureau of Statistics confirms the United States and Canada control a large portion of the world's visible supply of high-grade wheat.

According to information available here, there will be an exportable surplus of only from 100,000 to 100,000,000 bushels of wheat in Russia this year, but it will not grade as high as the Canadian wheat.

As to Argentina, it is too early to tell what the harvest will be, as the crop there is only as far advanced as the Canadian crop would be in June.

The Australian crop is just through the ground. Up to the present time, Canada has made no arrangements for the marketing of wheat in China, but the United States is disposing of some cargoes in the Orient by the arrangement of credits through the United States Government.

Hon. Herbert M. Marler, Canadian Minister to Tokyo, visited China some months ago, with the object of securing a market for Canadian wheat but the situation was such that no sales were arranged for at that time.

Candles Still Popular

Have Average Estimated Value Of Eighteen Million Dollars Yearly

Candles, the world's oldest lighting device, constitute an item of about 35 million pounds with an average estimated value of 18 million dollars in the annual export trade of the world, says the Department of Commerce. Great Britain is the largest exporter of candles, and, characteristic of the world trade in that commodity, showed a decline in exports during 1920, when the total was 10,743,040 pounds. France next, with exports of 4,104,550 pounds. Belgium was third with 3,820,572 pounds. The United States exported 1,666,254 pounds during the year.

American Health Officers Thankful For Inspiration and Ideas Given

After a day in Montreal well filled with meetings and discussion, the health officers section, child hygiene section, American Association of School Physicians and the International Society of Medical Health Officers delegates gathered for a joint dinner under the presidency of Dr. Hugh S. Cumming, president of the American Public Health Association. Dr. William F. Snow, general director, American School Hygiene Association, New York, brought to Canadian members and collaborating agencies the thanks of American health officers and other officials and workers in the field of child hygiene, for the inspiration and ideas they had gained from Canada's "forward looking protection and conservation policies."

Dr. Kendall Emerson, New York, addressing the dinner, said he believed that 50 per cent. of the surgery of the past 25 years could have been avoided, and that if left undone it would have meant healing and recovery, in the majority of cases.

Controversy Almost Over

One Act In Drama Of Hudson Bay Route Ended

Complete satisfaction with Churchill Harbour and the loading of the test shipment of grain was expressed by Hon. T. G. Murphy, Minister of the Interior, and Manitoba's representative in the federal cabinet, who arrived here after attending the loading of the first two grain boats out of Manitoba's new ocean port.

With the completion of the railway and the successful test of the harbour, one act in the drama of the Hudson Bay route is ended, Mr. Murphy said, and a controversy extending over half a century is about to be settled.

CANADIAN CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BUSINESS MEN VISIT MANITOBA'S SEAPORT

Some 300 leading figures in Canadian industrial and business life journeyed in three special Canadian National trains to Churchill early in September, under the auspices of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce. In earning the distinction of being the first organized party to visit Manitoba's seaport, they were witnesses to the inception of a venture which represents the hope and desire of the prairie provinces—the opening of a new trade route for the products of the West.

In the above are some of the prominent members of the party and other views presenting an appearance of stability at the northern port. 1. Dr. J. T. M. Anderson, Premier of Saskatchewan. 2. Gold to the value of hundreds of millions of dollars is still to be found in the Cariboo country, according to Dean R. W. Brock, of the University of British Columbia, who recently conducted a survey of the mineral resources of that section for the provincial government.

According to this report, evidence is accumulating to indicate that in the day when the Cariboo gold fields lure fortune seekers from all quarters of the globe more than a century ago, the surface of the district's mineral wealth was barely scratched. Intensive development and more modern methods may be expected to yield a vast treasure of gold far greater than the records of the past.

The Cariboo, however, is only one of several promising placer gold regions, according to a special bulletin issued by Hon. W. A. McKenzie, Minister of Mines.

An increase in the production of placer gold in British Columbia was recorded last year, this bulletin states, and Mr. McKenzie estimates that there will be a further increase this year. Preliminary figures show that larger amounts of gold are being recovered in the Yukon country, and prospectors are doing well with pan and rocker along the Fraser, Thompson, Similkameen and other rivers. Bars which have been inoperative for years have been developed and in the old placer camps many old diggings are being reworked. This is due partly to unemployment in other fields which had attracted men to the mines and partly to the strong position of gold in the world's markets.

Gold mines, which for 20 years have been accumulating cobwebs in basements and warehouses, are restored to their former conspicuous places on the counters of Cariboo general stores for the accommodation of bar miners. There are more prospectors at present working on the river bars and in the hills of Cariboo than at any other time in the last three or four decades. Some make "wages" and better, while others take out little more than "spec" in hope of uncovering a rich deposit which keeps the majority cheerfully at work.

On the larger streams they drift down with the current in search of "better ground." Some employ log huts, many of which are poorly constructed and often their occupants come to grief. Others use digguts and roughly fashioned flat bottomed boats. Where the streams are not navigable even for small boats, prospectors resort to backtracking. One man set out early in the spring, with a wheel-barrow, on which was loaded his rocker and other equipment.

His destination was 50 miles out. But he compromised on a tholy looking bar seven miles distant. He has remained there all summer taking out fair wages.

Reduce Wheat Acreage

Oklahoma Has a Plan To Limit Crop Production

A definite move is being made a reduction in cotton and wheat acreage by limitation of planting and enforced rotation is under way in Oklahoma.

Representatives of wheat and cotton growing counties, meeting at the call of Governor W. H. Murray, agreed upon a plan to confine 1932 cotton acreage to one-third and wheat acreage to two-thirds of the state's tillable land.

The plan provides that farmers could not lawfully plant cotton on the same land two years in succession. Wheat could not be planted for more than three successive years in the same land.

Need of Fire Protection

One week in October every year is set apart for the purpose of Fire Prevention.

This period is for the purpose of education of the public in fire loss in money and property, besides the loss of life which we suffer every year.

It is not generally known that Canada has the heaviest fire loss in the world, and when we know that 75 per cent. of these fires are caused by negligence or are preventable, we should naturally exercise every means in our power to reduce it. This can only be done by the care, watchfulness and co-operation of every citizen in Canada, man, woman and child.

The council has appointed the fire chief and constable as a committee to make inspection of all premises with the object of reducing fire hazard, and it will be well for all citizens to co-operate with these gentlemen and follow any suggestions they may make. Their efforts are for the personal benefit of the property owners, as well as for the good of the community at large.

Crop Report.

Issued by the Bank of Montreal

Surveying the crops of the Dominion, it can now be said that the wheat yield of the prairie provinces is approximately 157,000,000 bushels below a five-year average, with a corresponding reduction in the yields of coarse grains; that crops of the main staples in Ontario and Quebec generally have been heavier than average and of good quality; that in British Columbia, crops generally have been fairly satisfactory, and that in the maritime provinces, the yields of apples and hay have been above average, with oats a good average and potatoes below average. In respect to the prairie provinces, the Dominion Bureau of statistics estimates the wheat yield at 126,400,000 bushels from 23,178,000 acres, which compares with their estimate of 374,500,000 bushels from 23,960,000 acres last year and a five-year average of 461,000,000 bushels.

This year's oat crop is estimated at 177,700,000 bushels against 254,011,000 last year, whilst the barley crop at 52,800,000 bushels contrasts with 109,495,000 bushels last year.

Land sown to coarse grains was approximately 13,262,000 acres, or 1,720,000 acres less than in 1930.

The harvested acreage for all crops was much smaller than the seeded acreage, due to abandonments principally in central and southern Saskatchewan, on account of drought, high wind, and other damage.

Grain production for 1931 will be the lowest since the dry years of 1918-1920. The seeded was unusually dry and rainfall came not only too late, but in less than normal amounts in the growing season in all but the northern areas of the prairie provinces.

Wheat deliveries by farmers totaled up till last week, 105,000,000 bushels, which compares with that of 165,000,000 at the same time last year.

The yields of sugar beets in Alberta is estimated at 105,000 tons from 12,400 acres against 127,000 tons from 14,400 acres last year.

Ice Hockey Gains Favor In England

Though Canadians themselves have not reached the heights of enthusiasm over the 1931-32 hockey season, England is making active preparation for participation in the Canadian national game, judging by the number of ice hockey sticks shipped recently to the Old Country by C.N. express.

Although Englishmen seldom enjoy natural ice in their country, a number of artificial ice rinks have been built during the past two years and the game already has a fair following. Last year a team of graduates from the University of Manitoba played a series of exhibition games which did much to popularize the sport in Britain.

New Industry's Promise.

Development of a new industry in Western Canada—the manufacture of insulating board from muskeg litter, took definite form during the early part of October, with the start of production of the new "Moss-tek" by the Carlson Building Company, Edmonton. According to officials of the Natural Resources branch of the C.N.R., the company contemplates expansion to Manitoba.

Since the Edmonton branch was opened, 50,000 square feet of Moss-tek have been produced, comparing favorably with insulating boards manufactured of wood pulp and other fibrous materials, and possesses excellent insulating and acoustic properties.

SOME PLAIN FACTS

For Alberta Grain Growers' Consideration.

It is of vital importance to every grain grower that a strong grower-controlled co-operative elevator system should continue to function in this province and the Alberta Pool elevator organization represents the only facilities in this province that meet these requirements. This elevator system represents an investment of approximately eight million dollars, contributed by Alberta farmers, and the only method by which this substantial equity can be protected and continued operation assured under grower control is through the producers of this province extending their patronage to the system. This applies to grain growers throughout the province, whether Pool members or not.

All country elevators of the Alberta Wheat Pool are operated under public license and as such are in a position to handle any grain of any farmer on any basis provided under the Canada Grain Act. The Alberta Wheat Pool further emphasizes the fact that its elevator system is on a sound financial basis, has ample working capital, is managed efficiently, and can give unequalled service to the grain growers of the entire province. The agents are carefully selected and strictly instructed to give fair and equitable treatment, including proper weights and grades for their grain to all customers.

Alberta Pool members should not, in all fairness, seek to place any blame on the Alberta Pool elevator system for the payment situation in connection with the 1929 and 1930 pools. The sales of grain and the issuing of payments therefore came under the jurisdiction of the Central Selling Agency. The Pool elevator system had nothing to do with that situation. Responsibility for the administration and operation of the Alberta Pool elevators has always rested with the provincial organization, and on that record the system deserves consistent support.

The Alberta Pool elevator system has been in operation for four years. In that time, the giving of good service and equitable treatment to patrons at the lowest possible cost has been the main purpose kept in mind by the elevator administration. At the same time, during those four years, the excess earnings of the Alberta Pool system, after allowing for depreciation and payment of 6 per cent. on the actual money invested has provided an average annual sum of more than $470,000. A portion of these excess earnings has been distributed to growers on a patronage basis, and a portion retained by the organization to provide working capital.

It is desired again to emphasize the importance of growers delivering their grain through Pool elevators on the basis that the Pool is endeavoring to operate these facilities without discrimination between customers and with the definite policy of extending fair treatment to all persons using such facilities and under this policy your patronage is essential to the continued operation of these co-operative elevator facilities under producer control.

Capitalist Farming
Should Be Avoided

Farm Operated By Owner Is the Safest Proposition

Will any bad results come from the lower standard of living which is being forced, for a time at least, on many families throughout the Dominion? Fears have been expressed that ownership of much of the land will pass into the hands of loan companies or private capitalists, leaving the worker in the position of a tenant. This matter was discussed at the convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce at Regina recently, following a memorandum from Winnipeg. The sponsors of the idea realized that a policy for improving the situation could only be formulated after a full survey of facts that will be available when the census figures for 1911 appear.

Marketing is recognized as a main factor in restoring prosperity to the farmer. Problems such as grading for home trade and export market requirements, transportation and the reduction of costs, inter-provincial control of disease, are essentially national in character and therefore need themselves investigation and control of the Dominion Government.

Advertising of farm products is another line of efforts which must be national in scope in order to be effective. The Winnipeg Board of Trade points out that more money is spent in the Dominion in advertising toilet articles than in setting forth the merits of farm products.

These business men are pretty well agreed that the owner operated farm is the safest proposition and that it will be an evil day if capitalists take full control. Holders of mortgages are loath to take over property knowing full well that the farmer himself is usually best fitted to dig his way out of the present depression.

May Create Traffic
Problem For Tibet

Dahai Lama Trying To Break Down Prejudice Against Motor Cars

Tibetan monks are usually associated with motorists' nightmares, and it is most interesting to learn that the Dahai Lama of Tibet, one of the most secluded religious heads in the world, is to have a motor car. The average Tibetan looks upon a motor car as a "devil's wagon," but the Dahai Lama is confident that he will break down existing prejudices so that soon Tibet may have a traffic problem to cope with. The Dahai Lama does not propose to run any risks when he goes out in his motor car, and it has been arranged that parties of thirty monks will be posted at intervals along the mountain passes which he traverses. These gentlemen, it is said, carry the Dahai Lama's motor car on their heads along parts of the road which are not traversable!

Text Books
In Schools

Few Changes Required By Departmental Regulations In Saskatchewan

Allegations that the Saskatchewan Department of Education has adopted radical changes in school text books involving needless expense to parents in these days of financial depression, are declared unfounded in a recent statement to the press, emanating from the Department. The statement asserts that the new curriculum recently adopted for public and high schools of the province, does not require the scrapping of old text books and the purchase of new. In fact, it is set forth that, pursuant to instructions from Premier J. T. M. Anderson, as Minister of Education, pupils having access to old school books formerly authorized by the Department, are not required to purchase new ones.

The statement further shows that, far from causing additional expense to parents, the new curriculum actually calls for a smaller expenditure on books than ever before. Certain text books have been eliminated, thus making savings possible, while the only new books authorized are inexpensive.

In the public school grades, the only new book to be authorized was the Congdon Music Primer (price 25 cents), for use of grades three and four. This was necessitated by the addition of music to the public school curriculum in all grades. On the other hand, Elementary Composition (price 50 cents), formerly a text book for grades five to eight, and Public School Grammar (35 cents), formerly an alternative text for English Grammar in grades six to eight, both have been dropped as no text book is authorized in this subject. Further, the cost of the Canadian Speller was reduced, this year, from 40 cents to 25 cents.

With the exception of literature selections in English and foreign languages, the high school text books authorized for this year are almost identical with those of last year. According to the statement, "Selections in supplementary reading have been changed throughout, in compliance with earnest requests from high school teachers. Literature selections in grades nine and twelve have been changed for the same reason, while a few changes have been made in Latin, French and German prose. It is the usual practice, for departments of education to change text selections in English and foreign languages annually, but, the statement adds, no changes were made in Saskatchewan for 1930-31. The cost of literature and foreign language texts, it is pointed out, range from 15 to 50 cents. In grade twelve Biology, the former text book being out of print, it was replaced, necessarily, by the revised edition. However, pupils having access to the old text are not required to purchase the new book.

Free Distribution

Carrying the economies with regard to school text books further, the Department of Education has made arrangements with the Saskatchewan Teachers' Alliance for the collection of used text books, and their distribution, free of charge, amongst schools in the dried-out areas of the province.

Where text books, previously authorized, are available, they may be used to meet the emergency, says a statement issued by Premier Anderson covering this phase of the matter, which follows:

"The Department of Education has received many letters from all parts of the province, but particularly from the dried-out areas, requesting that pupils unable to purchase school books should be furnished with them by the Department. Arrangements have now been made with the executive of the Saskatchewan Teachers' Alliance whereby the latter undertakes to assist the department in taking care of cases of urgent need. The Alliance has welcomed the opportunity of sharing the responsibilities of the present situation.

"Through their 176 locals in the province, the Alliance will gather together at local points any discarded books available in their respective areas at the same time they will ascertain through their members information regarding urgent cases. As far as possible each local will distribute books collected to needy pupils in their district, the books to become the property of the school and not of individual pupils to whom they will be loaned for use.

"Any surplus will be sent to the Department of Education, and where there are cases which the locals are unable to handle, the information will be passed on to the department for their consideration. It is further undertaken to distribute used books outside the territory served by the Alliance, or where a local is unable to meet the local demands.

"The Department of Education has decided that discarded books should be kept out of school because of lack of books. Relief will be furnished as quickly as possible, and it is the minister's intention that the inevitable choice of the women who cares.

Danced On the DO-X

Germany Proves Great Plane Good As Ocean Liner

For the time being, her size satisfies our imagination. With a wing spread of 152 feet and a hull 121 feet long, twelve motors and two decks providing ample quarters for passengers and crew, it is possible for her to carry a pay load of from sixty to seventy passengers in addition to her crew of twelve. In one trial flight she actually carried 169 persons. As a final note on her resemblance to an ocean liner, it is reported that the passengers en route to New York held a dance on board ship after leaving Hampton Roads.

The DO-X is an experiment and its mishaps may be attributed to this fact. It is still to be seen whether either this plane or others built like her can be regularly and profitably used in air transportation. In any event Germany has shown us what can be done with the dirigible in trans-Atlantic flying; she is now attempting to demonstrate the possibilities of giant airplanes.—New York Evening Post.

LOST 30 lbs. FAT
IN 3 MONTHS

AT THE AGE OF 40

"I was very stout, and I have taken Kruschen Salts for 3 months, and have reduced from 212 lbs. to 182 lbs. (age 40). I am now slim, and have never felt in any way. Also I have never felt any effects which I have been told to expect from salts."—T.H.

That is an instance of Kruschen succeeding without assistance. But if any fat person will be satisfied with a moderate diet, and will take one half teaspoon of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water before breakfast every morning—they can lose fat in just the same way.

This is what Kruschen Salts does—it cleans out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidneys and liver in splendid working shape, and fills you with vigor and tireless energy, you'd almost forgetful how tired you'd been.

As a result, instead of planting yourself in an easy chair every few minutes and letting fatty fat accumulate, you feel an urge for activity that keeps you moving—and doesn't do things you've always wanted to do and need to do to keep you in good condition.

Champion Rabbit Catcher

Isaac Gough, of Gloucestershire, England, claims to be the champion rabbit catcher of Britain. He declared recently that he and his two sons had caught 52,343 rabbits between August and March. They had caught 1,250 in 10 days and 524 in one night. Mr. Gough makes so much money, from trapping that he pays income tax and is proud of it.

Persian Babas promises distinctness, charm and beauty. It is unrivaled in its magical effect on the skin. Swiftly absorbed by the tissue, it leaves never a vestige of stickiness. Delightfully cool to the skin. Stimulating and invigorating. Softens and smooths the hands, face, neck and throat. Slightly fragrant. Imparts youth and loveliness to the complexion. ### THE HOUSE OF DREAMS-COME-TRUE

"Staple? Is that the Brennans' place?"

"God bless my soul, not! The Tormans' acquired it when they came pushing over to England with the Conqueror. I imagine, Anne married twice, you know. Her first husband, Tormain, led her a dog's life, and after his death she married Claude Brennans—son of a junior branch of the Brennans. Now she is a widow for the second time."

"She suffers so—unnecessarily!"

Nearly Nervous Prostration

strained upwards, piercing the mass of drifting cloud, whilst below lay a world sheeted in snow, the long reach of dazzling purity broken only where the pine-woods etched black trunks against the whiteness and the steely gleam of a frozen lake showed like a broad blade drawn from a white velvet scabbard.

It had been part of Peterson's expressed programme that, before going their separate ways, he and Jean should make a brief stay at Montavan, there to await Lady Anne Brennans' answer to his letter. Jean had divined in this determination an excuse, covering his need to take farewell of that grave on the lonely mountain-side before he set out upon the solitary journey which could not fail to hold poignant memories of other former wanderings—wanderings invested with the exquisite joy of sharing each adventure with a beloved fellow-wayfarer.

Instinctively Jean had recognized the desire at the back of Glyn's decision to stop at Montavan, she was scrupulously careful not to let him guess her recognition. She took her cue from his own demeanour, which was outwardly that of a man merely travelling for pleasure, and she listened with a grim sense of amusement when poor Monsieur Vaurinot, the Maître d'Hotel, recognizing Peterson as a former client, sympathetically recalled the sad circumstances of his previous visit and was roundly snubbed for his pains.

To Jean the loss of her mother had meant far less than it would have done to a girl in more commonplace circumstances. It was true that Jacqueline had shown herself all that was kindhearted and generous in her genuine wish to compass the girl's happiness, and that Jean had been frankly fond of her and attracted to her, but in no sense of the words had there been any interpretation of a maternal or filial relationship. Of course I know I'm a quite superfluous third at Beinfels, but, all the same, you two really do make the most perfect host and hostess, and you try awfully hard not to let me feel de trop."

But, despite the fact that Jacqueline had represented little more to her daughter than a brilliant and delightful personality with whom circumstances happened to have brought her into contact, Jean was conscious of a sudden thrill of pain as her glance travelled across the wide stretches of snow and came at last to rest on the shoulder of a hill. She was moved by an immense consciousness of loss—not just the mere sense of bereavement which the circumstances would naturally have engendered, but something more absolute—a sense of all the exquisite maternal element which she had missed in the woman who was dead.

And then came recognition of the uselessness of such regret. Nothing could have made Jacqueline other than she was—one of the world's great lovers. Married to the man she loved, she asked nothing more of Nature, nor had she herself anything more to give. And the same reasoning, though perhaps in a less degree, could be applied to Peterson's own attitude of detachment towards his daughter, although Jean was intuitively aware that she had come to mean much more to him since her mother's death, even though it might be, perhaps, only because she represented a tangible link with his past happiness.

Thrusting aside the oppression of thought conjured up by her glimpse of that quiet God's Acre, set high up among the hills, she turned abruptly from the window and made her way downstairs to the hotel vestibule.

Here she discovered that Peterson had been claimed by some acquaintance. The encounter was obviously not of his own choosing, for to Jean's experienced eye, his face bore the slightly reserved expression common to it when circumstances had momentarily got the better of him.

His companions were a somewhat elaborate little Frenchman of fifty or thereabouts, with an unmistakable air of breeding about him, and a stately-looking woman some fifteen years younger, whose warm brunette colouring and swift, mobile gesture proclaimed her of Latin blood. All three were conversing in French.

"Ah! La vois qui vient!" Peterson turned as Jean approached, his quick exclamation tinged with relief. Still in French, which both he and Jean spoke as fluently and with as little accent as English, he continued rapidly: "Jean, let me present you to Madame la Comtesse de Varigny."

ENO'S "FRUIT SALT"

Mothers! Don't Risk Their Health With Violent Purgatives

Constipation is one of childhood's greatest enemies. Unless the intestinal system is kept clear and clean ill health is almost sure to follow.

But severe acting laxatives are dangerous. The bodily system of child or adult is not meant to withstand the unnatural forcing action caused by ordinary, cheap cathartics.

ENO'S "Fruit Salt" in a glass of water, every morning is the safest, surest and most pleasant way to insure cleanliness and perfect health.

The girl found herself looking straight into a pair of eyes of that peculiarly opaque, dense brown common to Southern races. They were heavily fringed with long black lashes, giving them a fictitiously soft and disarming expression, yet Jean was vaguely conscious that their real expression held something secret and implacable almost repellant, an impression strengthened by the virile, strongly-marked black brows that lay so close above them.

For the rest, Madame de Varigny was undeniably a beautiful woman, her blue-black, rather coarse hair framing an oval face extraordinarily attractive in contour, with somewhat high cheek bones and a clever, flexible mouth.

Jean's first instinctive feeling was one of distaste. In spite of her knowledge that Varigny was one of the oldest names in France, the Countess struck her as partaking a little of the adventures—of the type of woman of no particular birth who has climbed by her wits—and she wondered what position she had occupied prior to her marriage.

She was sharply recalled from her thoughts to find that Madame de Varigny was introducing the little middle-aged Frenchman to her as her husband, and immediately she spoke Jean felt her suspicious matting away beneath the warm, caressing caresses of an unusually beautiful voice. Such a voice was a straight passport to the heart. It seemed to clothe even the prosaic little Count in an almost romantic atmosphere of tender charm, an effect which he speedily dispelled by giving a Jean a full, true, and particular account of the various pulmonary symptoms which annually induced him to seek the high dry air of Montavan.

Little Helps For This Week

"The Lord is my shepherd; therefore I can lack nothing."—Psalmist.

So whether on the hilltops high and fair I dwell, or in the sunless valleys where the shadows lie, what matter? He is there.

And more than this: wherever the pathway lead, He gives to me no helpless, broken need, B't His own hand, sufficient for my need.

So where He leads me I can safely go, And in the best hereafter I shall know Why in His wisdom He hath led me so.

—Henry H. Barry.

He is a strict but tender Master; and on the way which He leads us are not only crosses and thorns, but light, and love, and sympathy, and peace, and at the end—happiness. M. K. Vincent.

Hail Insurance Returns.

The secretaries of the two local municipalities recently received the final reports from the hail board for the past season.

The report shows that the total average loss over the province to be just under ten per cent. This is greater than the average loss, but not so great as the four preceding years.

This year the rates have been classified by townships, and not by municipalities as formerly. The rates for this district have been set at 15 per cent for Township 31, and 10 per cent for the rest of the municipalities.

In Mountain View municipality very little insurance was carried during the year, and only 35 policies were taken out. Of these, 11 losses were sustained and claims paid. The total amount of premiums collectable was $3,544.25, and the total losses paid, $3,868.16.

More insurance was taken out in Westerdale municipality, and 53 policies were issued, 33 claims being paid. The total amount of premiums collectable was $1982.00, and the total damages paid, $9,037.57.

Provincial Convention Of The W.C.T.U.

At the nineteenth annual convention of the W.C.T.U. held in the St. Andrew's Baptist Church, Mrs. Wm. In addition to the 16 provincial officers, there were 12 superintendents of departments, 14 local presidents and 64 delegates who answered the roll.

The portrait of the late Mrs. L. C. McKinney, president of the Alberta W.C.T.U. and second woman in the British Empire to be elected to any parliament, was unveiled. Mrs. M. Hyslop, of Viking took charge of the memorial service, the presidents of the five districts paying a three-minute tribute to their late leader, and each placed in a crystal vase before the new oil painting a feathery white chrysanthemum.

The plan of work for the year was endorsed, with special attention to a membership drive to be known as the "Louise McKinney Memorial Veto."

The convention was favored in having Dr. Hugh Dobson, of Vancouver, who addressed a full house with a lecture in which he dealt with the words, "Women's Organization."

Miss M. Barber, of Edmonton was winner of the grand gold medal contest, which was the feature of the young peoples night. The judges declared that the contestants were very close and recommended all for their excellent performance.

Mrs. N. O. Parice announced the winners in the contest dealing with scientific subjects in schools. In the different grades, 1st prizes went to: 3 & 4, Freda Hall, Wetaskiwin; 7 & 8, Kathleen Forgarty, School of the Sacred Heart; 9 & 10, Mary Moore, Bigstone; 11 & 12, John Moore, Bigstone.

Bees, Beaver & Bears Prove Best Barometer

Bees, bears and beaver are the best barometers, and these animals predict an early winter and a cold one, in the opinion of a veteran railroader of the C.N.R., who has made a close study of these weather prophets. Bees, this year, have built their nests high, wide and ample. This means that the bees are providing against deep snows and possible starvation through a long draw-out winter. The bears are rolling in fat, and therefore prepared to go into early winter quarters for a long rest. Beavers already have their supplies of food cut and stored against an early freeze-up, and their houses are built extra strong.

On the other hand, a local weather prophet states that the signs indicate we will have the mildest winter yet experienced, with practically no snow until March, and then lots of it. Who will be right?
